FIELD EXPERIENCE

- Vaughn & Smith, PLLC: Associate (May 2014 – December 2014). Conferenced with clients, collected and documented evidence in support of the firm's clients' action or defense, conferred with construction experts, and drafted complaints, motions, and responses.
- Jefferson County Attorney's Office: Assistant County Attorney, Domestic Violence Unit (October 2010 – May 2013). Prosecutor in charge of the two busiest dockets in Jefferson County's District Court. Part of a specialized unit of only eight other prosecutors. Conferenced between ten and twenty cases a day. Scheduled and prepared for jury trials weekly. Maintained 90+% conviction rate. Pursued government's mission to protect our citizens, deter future crimes, counsel victims, and rehabilitate offenders where possible.
- Jefferson County Attorney's Office: Victim's Advocate, Domestic Violence Intake Center (full time, while studying for the KY Bar Exam). Conducted intake interviews, counseled victims of domestic violence, explained Emergency Protective Order and Domestic Violence Order procedures, aided victims in beginning the criminal complaint/warrant process, including taking pictures of injuries.
- University of Louisville Law Clinic (Fall 2009, Spring 2010). Qualified for a limited license under SCR 2.540. Conducted intake interviews, prepared motions, and represented clients referred from Legal Aid in Emergency Protective Order hearings, divorce actions, and forcible detainer cases.
- University of Louisville Mock Trial Head Coach (2010 to 2012). Selected fact pattern for the Intrastate Mock Trial tournament, interviewed, cast, and coached the law school team. Taught evidence by way of helping students prepare direct and cross examinations, compose motions in limine, and anticipate what objection exchanges were likely.
