

Marcia M. Ziegler, Esq.
337 Arlington Avenue, Clarksville, IN 47129
757-373-4894

CURRICULUM VITAE

EXPERIENCE

Ivy Tech Community College, Sellersburg, IN

January 2010 to present

Program Chair, Professor, Legal Studies and Criminal Justice Departments

Chair of the Legal Studies program and current Professor in the Criminal Justice program, teaching a variety of classes in both programs. Online course developer and mentor.

Contributor to various committees. Internship Supervisor. Director of the Expungement program and Ivy Illuminate, an arts program on campus.

Concord School of Law, Purdue University Global

April 2021 to present

Adjunct Professor

Adjunct Professor of Legal Writing.

University of Louisville, Brandeis School of Law, Louisville, KY

January 2020 to present

Adjunct Professor

Adjunct Professor of Law teaching multiple subjects to first and second year students. Duties include classroom lecture, online and traditional course material creation and mentoring.

Pearson Publications

May 2011 to 2015

Subject Matter Expert, Course Writer, Text Reviewer

Contract position writing and revising course materials for Criminal Justice and Paralegal texts.

Hamilton County Prosecutor's Office, Noblesville, IN

November 2007 to December 2009

Deputy Prosecuting Attorney

Prosecutor in Felony Court, responsible for A, B, and C felonies and murder cases.

NIIT—Online Division for ITT Tech/Pearson Publications

November 2006 to December 2008

Course Writer

Contract position writing tests and course materials for the Criminal Justice division.

Noblesville Schools, Noblesville, IN
September 2006 to November 2007

ISS Supervisor/8th period instructor

Supervision and instruction for students during school hours. Instructor for 8th period class, giving students who are at risk of repeating a grade help with classwork in all subjects.
Mock Trial Coach.

Office of the Commonwealth's Attorney, Norfolk, VA
August 2001 to August 2006

Assistant Commonwealth's Attorney

Responsible for the prosecution of criminal offenses at every level of state court proceedings. Experience in Juvenile and Domestic Relations, General District, and Circuit Courts. Experience in research and writing of criminal appeals.
Received extensive training in a variety of specific fields. Trained police officers in Animal Control and for the Norfolk Police Academy. Prosecutor for the Norfolk Mental Health Court, the first of its kind in Virginia.

Norfolk Circuit Court, Norfolk, VA
August 2000 to August 2001

Law Clerk

Chiefly responsible for research and writing for Judges Marc Jacobson and Charles D. Griffith. Wrote numerous opinions on civil law, criminal law, and civil and criminal procedure. Observed trial and motions practice in assisting the Court.

Cumberland County District Attorney's Office, Carlisle, PA
August 1999-May 2000

Intern—Second Year Practice

Maintained full responsibility for the prosecution of misdemeanor appeals. Responsible for research and writing of appellate briefs. Prosecuted two jury trials and numerous bench trials while in law school.

Dickinson School of Law
Carlisle, PA
August 1997-August 1998

TA for Professor Gary Gildin; assisted in Constitutional Law research for publication.

LICENSURE

Indiana Bar, active member since 2013

Virginia Bar, associate member since 2010, active member 2000-2010

EDUCATION

Old Dominion University--Graduate Department, Psychology	2006-2007
J.D., The Dickinson School of Law of the Pennsylvania State University, magna cum laude	2000
B.A., Biology and Political Science Majors, Music Minor, Hope College, summa cum laude	1997
A.A., Biology and Music, Northwestern Michigan College, summa cum laude	1995

Academic Distinctions

Full academic scholarships for college and law school
Law school rank: 5/166
Articles Editor, Dickinson Law Review, 1999-2000
Published Law Review Article, Nonfeasance and the Duty to Assist: the American Seinfeld Syndrome, Dickinson Law Review, May 2000
Winner of the Kalodner Memorial Award in Criminal Law and Criminal Procedure
Winner of the Corpus Juris Secundum award in Civil Procedure
Admitted to the Woolsack Society for academic distinction in Law
Phi Beta Kappa
Phi Theta Kappa

Relevant Completed Training

Virginia State Bar 2000 Ethics Update, November 2000, Norfolk, VA
31st Annual Criminal Law Seminar, Virginia State Bar, February 16, 2001, Williamsburg, VA
Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission 2001 Update, August 2001, Norfolk, VA
Advanced Gang Training, Virginia Gang Investigators' Association, October 23-16, 2001, Norfolk, VA
Improving Investigation and Prosecution of Child Abuse, VA Department of Criminal Justice Services, December 6-7, 2001, Virginia Beach, VA
Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission 2002 Update, August 2002, Norfolk, VA
Jumpstart, Training for Juvenile Prosecutors, April 11-13, 2002, Pittsburgh, PA
2002 Trial Advocacy, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, June 9-14, 2002, Williamsburg, VA
2002 Summer Institute, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, August 1-4, 2002, Virginia Beach, VA
2003 Spring Institute, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, March 23-26, 2003, Williamsburg, VA
A Toolbox for Police and Prosecutors, Financial Crimes Intelligence Center, May 14-15, 2003, Hampton Roads Criminal Justice Training Academy, Virginia Beach, VA
2004 Spring Institute, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, March 21-24, 2004, Williamsburg, VA
Advanced DNA for Prosecutors, Virginia Institute for Science and Medicine, March 25, 2004, Williamsburg, VA

Cross-Examination, National District Attorneys' Association, August 10-13, 2004, National Advocacy Center, Columbia, SC
Forensic Evidence, National College of District Attorneys, December 5-9, 2004, San Francisco, CA
2005 Spring Institute, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, March 20-23, 2005, Williamsburg, VA
2005 Summer Institute, Commonwealth Attorneys' Services Council, August 5-8, 2005
DNA for Prosecutors, Advanced Strategies, November 2-4, 2005, Hot Springs, VA
IPAC Winter Conference, Indiana Prosecuting Attorneys' Council, December 2007, Indianapolis, IN
24th National Symposium on Child Abuse, National Center for Missing and Exploited Children, Huntsville, AL, March 17-20, 2008
Indiana Law Update, September 2008, Indianapolis, IN Global Youth Justice National Conference on Teen Court, December 2010, Las Vegas, NV
Center for Leadership Excellence, Ivy Tech Community College, Fall 2010, Sellersburg, IN Bridges out of Poverty: Certification Training for Reaching the Under-Resourced Learner, February 2011, Indianapolis, IN Indiana Guardian ad Litem Training, August 2019, Sellersburg, IN Indiana Law Update, Jeffersonville, IN, December 2019
Mock Trial Judge, Louisville, KY, December 2019
New Faculty Training and Module Instruction, Purdue University Global, April 2021

Instruction

Virginia Animal Control Officers Instruction in Investigation and Prosecution of Dogfighting, March 2004
Norfolk Police Academy Instruction in Juvenile Law, March 2005, September 2005, December 2005
Center for Leadership Excellence, Heartland Payment Systems, June 2011, Jeffersonville, IN.

INSTITUTIONAL SUPPORT

Current chair of the Legal Studies and Paralegal programs in Sellersburg
Former chair of the Criminal Justice program
Member of several regional committees, including promotion reviews
Former member of the statewide IVYT curriculum committee
Developer for numerous courses in PARA, LEGS and IVYT
Ivy Online instructor
Director for Sellersburg's Expungement program
Director for Ivy Illuminate, an arts program bringing community theater on campus
Instructor for Ivy Tech Kids College, 2012 to present
Elected representative to Faculty Council, Sellersburg
Appointed to the statewide Ivy Achieves initiative