GRETCHEN HUNT

Gretchen Hunt heads the Office of Victims Advocacy in the Kentucky Office of the Attorney General. She has advocated for the rights of victims of sexual assault, domestic violence and human trafficking for the past 15 years. She was instrumental in passage of Kentucky's Human Trafficking Victims Rights Act. Her articles on human trafficking have been published in the Kentucky Bar Review and the Journal of Violence, Trauma and Abuse. She is a past recipient of Leadership Award of the Kentucky Women's Law Enforcement Network and the Liberation Award from Kentucky Rescue and Restore for her work on human trafficking, and was recently awarded Member of the Year by the Women Lawyers Association. She is a graduate of Boston College Law School.

PRIYA S. KOUL

Priya S. Koul has worked with the Kentucky Association of Sexual Assault Programs (KASAP) on human trafficking since 2014 and serves as a local speaker on human trafficking. Ms. Koul is the co-author of Seeking Justice for Victims of Human Trafficking in Kentucky: A Practical Guide for Attorneys and Judges. She is a member of the State Human Trafficking Task Force. Ms. Koul has served on the Citizen Foster Care Review Board in Fayette County since 2013. She is a graduate of Chicago-Kent College of Law, George Washington University and the University of Virginia.

LAELA KASHAN

Laela Kashan is the Staff Attorney for the Kentucky Association of Sexual Assault Programs. She began her career in the field of sexual assault and intimate partner violence as a volunteer with the University of Louisville's PEACC Program in 2002. She continued as a volunteer at Women's Crisis Center while attending NKU Chase College of Law. Following admittance to the KY Bar in 2008, Ms. Kashan served in the Peace Corps as a Community and Organizational Development Consultant at a domestic violence shelter in the Republic of Moldova. She worked at the Center for Women and Families prior to joining KASAP.
