

LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program

September 11, 2020

Dear First Year Student,

We will miss being able to be on campus this year to meet with you to promote the Leadership Council on Legal Diversity's (LCLD) Law School Mentoring Program. The LCLD is excited to offer the LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program again for first year students at the University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law. LCLD is a national organization of more than 300 corporate general counsel and law firm managing partners. For more information about LCLD, please visit LCLD's website at www.lclldnet.org.

LCLD believes that success in law school is the first step to a successful legal career. To support the success of diverse students in law school, LCLD is launching the 2019-2020 LCLD Success in Law School Mentoring Program in 28 cities around the country, including Louisville. Participating mentees will be paired with an experienced lawyer in Louisville, from one of LCLD's Member organizations. Mentees will also have an opportunity to participate in the LCLD Group Mentoring Program, which includes networking events and substantive informational programming. Please note that due to the COVID-19 pandemic, we will hold events virtually if social-distancing measures are still necessary during the 2020-2021 academic year.

You can register online for this first come, first serve program beginning Thursday, October 1, 2020. Please register on LCLD's website, using the following link: <http://www.lclldnet.org/programs/law-school-mentoring/mentees>. If you have additional questions, please feel free to contact Becky or Kendall at the email or phone number below or Nancy Richardson, LCLD Program Manager (nrichardson@lclldnet.com or 804.787.8009).

We look forward to helping support your success in law school!

Sincerely,

Sincerely,

Sara Abner
