

University of Louisville Law Library Video Tour 2021

Welcome to the University of Louisville Brandeis School of Law Library.

We are open to law school students 7 days a week, for details about our hours and services, visit our website at louisville.edu/law/library or on social media at UofLLawLib.

Stop at the front desk to ask reference questions and check out materials like books, study aids, and power cords.

Please do not leave valuable items unattended in the library. And bring your UofL ID card, which is also your library card.

The main reading room offers reference materials, group study spaces, public computers, a private telephone booth, and a microfilm reader.

A student computer lab and several study rooms for law students are on the first floor.

Other materials on the first floor include federal and state cases, regulations, and statutes.

The second floor provides 3 law student study rooms, periodical and loose-leaf collections, and a vending machine.

The second floor is a quiet study area.

The mezzanine and sub-basement are also quiet study areas.

Treatises are stored in the basement, where you'll also find more study rooms.

See the user's manual on our website for more information.
