

ASNBS Department PLAN for Masters Students

Year 1 (Fall)

Year 1 (Spring/Summer)

Year 2(Fall)

Year 2 (Spring/Summer)

Professional

> ASNBS/SIGS orientation

> Attend and participate in one of the many journal clubs at the Med School (every semester)

> TA an ASNBS course (optional)

Life Skills

Academic

> ASNBS Grad Student meeting to discuss requirements
> Academic advising (every semester)
> Lab Rotation (optional)

> Lab Rotation
> Form thesis committee

> Meet with thesis committee to review progress.

> Complete and defend thesis by end of 2nd year.

Networking

> ASNBS welcome event for new students
> Attend Neuroscience Seminar Series (all semesters)

> Meet with speakers that visit periodically (all semesters)

> Attend a local conference (optional).

> Present research findings at our local Neuroscience Day.

