

University of Louisville Family & Geriatric Medicine
January 18, 2016 – January 22, 2016

Tuesday, January 19th		Geriatric Medicine Conference	Geriatric Conference Rm. HCOC Building , Suite 170
1:00 – 2:00	"Nursing Home Billing"	Larry Smith, MD, CMD
2:00 – 3:00
3:00 – 4:00	GET Care Team Meeting
4:00 – 5:00	Site Meeting

Wednesday, January 20th		Sports Medicine Conference	Rudd
2:30 – 4:30	EKG & SCD, Seattle Criteria	Neil Patil, M.D. Mike Hughes, D.O.

Thursday, January 21st		Family Medicine Conference	Rudd Suite 690
1:00 – 2:00	Developmental Screening	Michelle Curtin, D.O.
2:00 – 3:00	Board Review – Geriatrics	Jesse Jenkins, M.D.
3:00 – 5:00	Semi –Annual Review

Friday, January 22nd		Grand Rounds	Bottigheimer Auditorium Jewish Hospital
7:30 – 8:30 AM	Computer-assisted Cognitive behavior Therapy for Depression: A Paradigm Shift for Treatment Delivery in Primary Care?
Speaker	Renee Girdler, M.D. , Jesse Wright, M.D., PhD
Learning Objectives	1. Describe basic principles of cognitive-behavior therapy (CBT) for depression 2. Recognize barriers for treatment delivery of CBT in primary care 3. Detail key findings of research on computer-assisted CBT (CCBT) for depression 4. Describe core features of empirically tested programs for CCBT of depression. 5. List practical methods for primary care clinician support of CCBT for depression		