

Dr. Brit Anderson – Emergency Medicine

Promoted to Associate Professor – Term

7/1/2014-7/1/2020

Excellence in Teaching

Scholarly Activity:

- 4 publications

Anderson B, Kiper C, Black A, Boland K. Residents Leading the Way: a Unique Advocacy Programme. Medical Education. 52: 564-565, 2018.

- 5 national abstracts

- 1 local Grand Rounds “The Pediatrician Advocate”

- 3 external grants (2 CATCH, 1 APA resident investigator)

- Co-creator of advanced advocacy elective

Examples of Scholarly Activity – Term Track

- Development of teaching tools, curricular or curricular models
- Invited lectureships, giving grand rounds, extra-university leadership roles
- Substantial contribution to a local or national clinical trial
- Service as a board reviewer
- Active service on a regional or national committee

Examples of Scholarly Activity – Term Track

- Intramural or extramural funding for a clinical or educational project
- Leadership role in a local, regional, or national conference
- Incorporation of new teaching technology
- Leadership or substantial role in a quality improvement project
- Leadership role in the development or revision of evidence-based clinical practice procedures
- Evidence-based consultation to public officials

More details on Scholarly Activity

<http://louisville.edu/medicine/facultyaffairs/promotion-and-tenure>

Includes links to recordings of Dr. Paul's PAT workshops on promotion

Summary of Criteria for Promotion, Appointment, Tenure and Periodic Career Review \(Oct 2020 rev\) – Page 10