QI Decision Support Tool

When your team decides to start a quality improvement or program evaluation project we recommend you complete this tool to help you decide whether you need to seek IRB approval

<https://HelpMeNCRI.org/QI>

You will receive a copy of your responses via email

QI Decision Support Tool

Important notes:

- Completion of the tool is not equivalent to the UofL IRB's approval or exemption
- If you plan to publish outside of the institution it may require additional review by your clinical facility.
- If the project changes in any way that might affect the intent or design, the tool should be completed again.
