

Distinction in Research (DIR)

Application to DIR requires:

- CV (see link to template on main application page). You will upload your CV when prompted. You may upload a Word doc or a pdf. Please use the following format for the filename: cv_lastname,firstname.
- Personal Statement: In a statement of approximately 1-2 pages, describe your interest in a career as an academic clinician and your goals for the DIR. Use 12 point Arial font and 1-inch margins. You may upload a Word doc or a pdf. Please use the following format for the filename: personal_statement_lastname,firstname.

After you've prepared these materials, access the DIR application portal from the main application page. Complete the demographic information and Previous Research Experience, and upload your CV and Personal Statement when prompted.

Questions about the application process:

Emily J. Noonan, PhD

emily.noonan@louisville.edu