

Financial aid award information for the School of Medicine 2021-2022 academic year. Before you accept, reduce or decline your loan aid offer on ULINK, it is strongly recommended that you read the following information in full.

Federal Student Loan Information 2021-2022

New students must sign a Federal Direct Loan and/or Federal Direct Grad/PLUS Loan Master Promissory Note (MPN) and complete Federal Loan Entrance Counseling.

- You must use your U.S. Department of Education FSA ID to complete Loan Entrance Counseling and to electronically sign your Master Promissory Note(s).
- To sign the MPN(s) on-line, go to studentaid.gov. Professional students who borrow from both the Direct Unsubsidized and Direct Grad/PLUS loan programs will need to sign two MPNs; one for the Direct Loan and one for the Direct Grad/PLUS Loan.
- To complete the Loan Entrance Counseling on-line, go to studentaid.gov. Professional students who borrow from both the Direct Loan and Direct Grad/PLUS Loan programs must be sure to select the option for the Combination Graduate Direct and PLUS Loans Entrance Counseling.

PLEASE NOTE – Prior medical school borrowers who have previously completed Entrance Counseling and signed an MPN(s) do not have to do these steps again this year.

Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loan Information (Dept. of Education Loan)

- Direct Unsubsidized Loans are not based on financial need. However, your award cannot exceed your Cost of Attendance (COA).
- Interest accrues continuously on Direct Unsubsidized Loans, beginning at disbursement, for the life of the loan. You can optionally pay the interest accrued at any time or it will be added to your principal when you enter repayment.
- Federal Loan limits, year in school and other aid determine the maximum amount of eligibility for Direct Unsubsidized Loan you will be offered each year of medical school.
- The maximum amount of Direct Unsubsidized Loan you may be eligible to borrow each year at UofL Medical School is up to: $42,722-1st year (M1), $44,944-2nd Year (M2), $47,167-3rd Year (M3) and $42,722-4th Year (M4).
- You will be offered the full Direct Unsubsidized Loan amount unless you are close to or at the aggregate loan limit of $224,000 or have other aid (Scholarships, HPSP, LDS, PCL, Outside Scholarships & etc.) up to the Cost of Attendance.
- The 2021-22 interest rate for Federal Direct Unsubsidized Loans is fixed at 5.28% for the life of the 21-22 loan.
- The maximum aggregate amount of all Direct Subsidized Loans and Direct Unsubsidized Loans (combined) you can receive as a student (includes undergraduate, graduate and professional school) is $224,000.
- Repayment on all Direct Loans begins six months (6 month grace period) after you graduate or drop below half-time status.
- A 1.057% origination fee is charged (removed) prior to disbursement of the loan and retained by the Dept. of Education.

Federal Direct Grad/PLUS Loan Information (Dept. of Education Loan)

- The maximum amount of Direct Grad/ PLUS Loans you can borrow is the Cost of Attendance minus all other aid received (Direct Unsubsidized Loans, PCL & LDS loans, Scholarships, Military HPSP, Veterans HPSP, Outside Scholarships and etc.).
- The Direct Grad/PLUS Loan is offered only after all Direct Unsubsidized Loan eligibility is awarded.
- Interest accrues continuously on Direct Grad/PLUS Loans beginning at disbursement, while you are in school and repayment. You can optionally pay the interest accrued at any time or it will be added to your principal when you enter repayment.
- The 2021-22 interest rate for Federal Direct Grad/PLUS Loans is fixed at 6.28% for the life of the 21-22 loan.
- Technically, repayment on all Direct Grad/PLUS Loans begins 60 days after the loan is fully disbursed. However, the loan is placed in an automatic In-School Deferment status with no payments required during school.
- A 4.228% origination fee is charged (removed) prior to disbursement of the loan and retained by the Dept. of Education.

Primary Care Loan (PCL) or Loan for Disadvantaged Students (LDS) Information (DHHS Loans)

- Parental data is required on the FAFSA to be considered for LDS. FAFSA parental data is reviewed for eligibility, no application is needed. Students are notified, late in the 21-22 academic year, if they are being considered for LDS.
- Parental data is required for PCL unless you meet certain age and tax requirements. You must notify the School of Medicine Financial Aid Office if you are interested in being considered for the PCL, at any time during medical school.
- The PCL and LDS Loans are both need based loans.
- PCL requires specific primary care residencies and primary care practice.
- Both PCL and LDS are 5% simple interest loans that do not accrue interest during school and have approved deferment periods.
- Students sign PCL or LDS promissory notes on-line under the Bursar's office tab on ULINK each semester.

Communications

Monitor your university e-mail account for important communications from our office. Additionally, we encourage you to frequently view the financial aid website at www.louisville.edu/financialaid for additional information and financial aid news. Incoming medical students should also check for updates on the SOM Admissions Blackboard site.

Other Outside Aid-(Outside scholarships, HPSP Military/Veterans & etc.)

All students must report “other” aid resources not listed on ULINK. Failure to report other outside aid may result in a reduction in federal aid or scholarship aid. You may report other aid online at <https://louisville.edu/financialaid/our-services/report-other-aid-resources> or contact SOM Financial Aid at 502-852-5187. Outside aid must be reported, even if you are not applying for Federal loans.

Satisfactory Academic Progress (SAP)

Repeating coursework or being placed on Academic Probation while enrolled at the School of Medicine may have negative implications in obtaining Federal Financial Aid (loans). All medical students are evaluated for SAP to receive federal aid. If you are not making SAP then you will be required to sign a “Satisfactory Academic Progress Plan” with Student Affairs.

Consumer Information and Questions?

For more information on financial aid, you are encouraged to refer to our Consumer Information at www.louisville.edu/financialaid. To assist you in checking your To Do List and accepting or declining your financial aid awards on the University’s ULINK website www.ulink.louisville.edu, we have an online tutorial listed under Our Services at www.louisville.edu/financialaid. Have You...

- ✓ Accepted your Federal Loan amounts. Log into your UofL Student Portal via ULINK (You do not have to accept Scholarship awards)
- ✓ Completed the one-time online “Loan Entrance Counseling”, if you are borrowing a Federal Direct Loan and/or the Federal Direct Grad/PLUS Loan during medical school, at studentaid.gov
- ✓ Signed your one-time Master Promissory Notes (MPN), if you are borrowing the Federal Direct Loan and/or Federal Direct Grad/PLUS Loan during medical school, at studentaid.gov
- ✓ Signed your Promissory Note (each semester) as instructed, if you are awarded PCL or LDS.
- ✓ Set up your “refund option” with “Nelnet Student Choice Refunds” Log into your UofL Student Portal via ULINK

If you have done all the above, any refund (residual amount), after Tuition and Fees have been paid each semester, the Bursar’s Office will transfer the residual amount to “Nelnet Student Choice Refunds” for disbursement, based on your selected refund option. Financial Aid disbursement dates are listed in this document. The Bursar’s Office credits aid to the Tuition & Fees owed then any refund amount is received approx. 2-3 days after the Financial Aid disbursement date.
