How to Thrive in Academia

We focus on four key areas that help you achieve extraordinary writing and research productivity while maintaining a full and healthy life off campus.

1. Strategic Planning

Learn how to plan your academic year, your term, and your weekly schedule in a way that is aligned with your tenure and promotion criteria

4. Work-Life Balance

Learn how to reduce your stress, prioritize your self-care, and find balance in your personal and professional life

2. Explosive Productivity

Learn the skills and strategies that will help you publish more research, win more grants, and manage your internal resistance to writing

3. Healthy Relationships

Learn how to manage your professional relationships and build a thriving network of mentors, sponsors, and collaborators

"The supportive community that the NCFDD provides has given many of our faculty new ways to organize their work so they can both be productive and have time for families and friends. Balance is the term that comes to mind, but it is more than that." Margaret L. Andersen, PhD, University of Delaware, Associate Provost for Faculty Affairs, The University of Delaware

"Our faculty at all career stages, especially faculty of color and underrepresented faculty members, have found the resources beneficial - inspirational, pragmatic, and normalizing of the challenges they face... Faculty evaluations of the program report their appreciation that the institution is 'investing in our future and success.' The NCFDD is a breath of much-needed fresh air in the Academy." Diane Finnerty, MS, Assistant Provost for Faculty, The University of Iowa
