www.va.gov/careers-employment/vocational-rehabilitation/

If you have a service-connected disability that limits your ability to work or prevents you from working, VR&E (formerly called Vocational Rehabilitation and Employment) can help. This program—also known as Chapter—helps you explore employment options and address education or training needs. In some cases, family members may qualify for certain benefits.

You're eligible to apply for VR&E benefits and services if you meet both of these requirements:

- You didn't receive a dishonorable discharge, and
- You have a service-connected disability rating of at least 10% from VA

Applications are processed by your local VR&E Office.
