

University of Louisville Piano Festival and Competition

Dates: November 9 - 10, 2024, School of Music

A two-day piano event featuring a piano competition, masterclasses and lectures by guest artists and performance opportunities for students.

The competition is open to classically trained piano students, currently enrolled in high school grades 9 through 12, including those in homeschooling programs

Cash prizes and performance opportunities

Application deadline, including pre-screening video August 1, 2024

The festival and masterclasses are open to all piano students (k-12 and collegiate level)

Registration deadline for the festival is September 15

For more information contact anna.petrova@louisville.edu

Requirements and Eligibility

Open to classically-trained students who are currently enrolled in highschool (or homeschool equivalent) grades 9 through 12.

Application deadline, including pre-selection video, August 1st, 2024

Notification of acceptance will be made by September 1st, 2024.

Repertoire

A pre-selection video of 10-15 minutes demonstrating the candidates abilities. Repertoire does not have to be the same as the live round repertoire.

Live round repertoire:

10-15 minutes of music from at least two different styles, including:

Baroque

Classical

Romantic

20th and 21st Century

*Prepared piano works and unpublished pieces are NOT allowed

With the exception of the 20th / 21st Century pieces all works must be memorized

Prizes

1st prize $2000

2nd prize $1000

3rd prize $500