

University of Louisville School of Nursing Student Learning Outcomes
2018-2019
Post Graduate Certificate Program

University Mission	Program Goals (CCNE Outcomes)	Student Learning Outcomes	Measures and Targets
1. teaching diverse undergraduate, graduate, and professional students in order to develop engaged citizens, leaders, and scholars,	Apply communication strategies with individuals, families, and groups in providing advanced nursing care or practice initiatives Essentials IV, VIII	Students will use analytics and patient care technology to effectively communicate patient and program information	Clinical Evaluation (direct): 90% of students will receive a score of B- (80%) or better on their SOAP note communication assignment (NURS 788)
2. practicing and applying research, scholarship and creative activity	Engage in clinical scholarship by providing evidence based care to individuals, families, groups and communities. Essentials I, III, IV	Students will demonstrate the use of evidence to inform the development of patient centered health care plans	90% of students will pass the final clinical evaluation of clinical practice skills with a minimum score of 102 points out of 116 on the Clinical Evaluation Instrument (NURS 789)
3. providing engaged service and outreach that improve the quality of life for local and global communities.	Demonstrate knowledge development in the practice of advanced nursing care to individuals, families, groups, and communities. Essentials I, VI, VIII	Students will translate knowledge into practice to promote safe, timely, effective, equitable, and evidence-based care	90% of students will pass the advanced practice registered nurse national certification exam for their specific specialty (post-graduation exam report)