2023 Student Perception Survey (SPS) – Undergraduate Declared/Intended Majors Executive Summary

Background
The Student Perception Survey (SPS) was administered this past spring semester to all sophomores, juniors, and continuing graduate students. The goal of this survey is to gather information from current students about their experiences at the university. Respondents are asked about their perception of—and satisfaction with—their time at UofL, including academic preparation, experience in their unit and their major/program, advising, and faculty.

Methodology
A PeopleSoft query was used to provide a listing of all 7,232 “declared/intended” freshmen, sophomores, and juniors in Spring 2023. Students classified as “intended” majors have not completed the minimum requirements to declare their major. A total of 512 (7%) students responded to the survey; due to the low number of responses, caution should be used when attempting to generalize to the entire population of undergraduate students.¹

Profile
Of the 512 respondents who completed the survey (and the 358 for whom demographic data are available), 70% are female, 80% are full-time students, 63% are White, 14% are African American, 8% are Hispanic/Latino, 7% are Asian, 6% are two or more races, and 2% are another race. Additionally, 45% are first generation college students.

Data Highlights
Below are some findings that may be of interest to the university community.

Overall Experiences
- With UofL
