

2016-17 Graduating Student Survey (GSS) – Graduate & Professional Students

Executive Summary

Background

The Graduating Student Survey (GSS) is administered each summer, fall, and spring semester to all master's, doctoral, and professional-level students who have submitted a degree application for graduation. The goal of this survey is to gather exit information from graduating students about their experiences at the university. Respondents are asked about their perception of—and satisfaction with—their time at UofL, including academic preparation, experience in their unit and their major/program, academic support services and facilities, other student services and programs, advising, faculty, and their plans following graduation.

Methodology

A PeopleSoft query was used to provide a listing of all graduate students who submitted a degree application in Summer 2016, Fall 2016, or Spring 2017. A total of 588 (31%) students responded to the survey; this number of respondents meets the requirements to be considered a representative¹ sample of the graduating population.

Profile

Of the 588 students who responded to the survey, 59% are female, 66% are full-time students, 78% are White, 8% are African American, 6% are Nonresident Alien, 3% are Asian, and 5% are other races.
