

Syllabus Statement

“The University of Louisville strives to maintain the campus free of all forms of illegal discrimination as a place of work and study for faculty, staff, and students. Sexual harassment is unacceptable and unlawful conduct and will not be tolerated in the workplace and the educational environment. Unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature constitute sexual harassment, even when carried out through computers or other electronic communications systems.

Anyone experiencing Sexual Harassment can contact the PEACC Program at 502-852-2663 and an advocate will explain your choices. This is a free and confidential service.”

Additional Information

Students and Instructors are protected from Sexual Harassment according to the Affirmative Action policy, the Student Code of Conduct, and the UofL Computer Account Usage Agreement.

Anyone who would like to receive more information or provide training to a classroom can contact a PEACC representative at 502-852-2663 and may use the educational modules provided by the PEACC Program.

Also, feel free to include a personal message to the students, such as the example below:

I believe that everyone should be able to participate in my class without the fear of sexual harassment, and I am committed to the university's policy. Additionally, certain behaviors are inappropriate even if they do not meet the technical criteria for harassment. Be respectful to each other.
