

Celebrate Peace Day!

www.louisville.edu/peace

United Nations International Day of Peace, Sept. 21 Week Without Violence, Sept. 21-25 (Random Acts of Kindness: any date, time, or place!)

Monday, Sept. 21

- 1:00- 3:00 PEACC: Step in for Peace by making a commitment to tell people you won't tolerate violence and you'll do your part to make this the safest campus around. SRC Wellbeing Station.
- 3:00 Chao Auditorium: "Rise Up: Encouraging a Generation for Change," Student Peacemakers testify about their projects overseas, across town, across campus. Learn strategies to pursue your social justice projects. Reception follows.
- 7:00 Special SAB Film: The Act of Killing, leaders of Indonesian death squad reenact their murders of suspected communists and ethnic Chinese by making a film using Hollywood genres including gagsters, westerns, and musicals. Winner, 2014 British Academy Award for Best Documentary. Floyd Theatre.
- 7:30 PEACC, Queen of Sheba: "The Backlog," LaMont Johnson and experts on the backlog of rape kits in Kentucky and renewed efforts to bring justice and healing to survivors. The Avenue, Card Towne.

Tuesday, Sept. 22

- 4:00 "Student' Engagement with Civil Rights: Putting Experiences to Actions." Students will share experiences from the 50th anniversary of the Selma Civil Rights March, a "Truth Telling Project" in Ferguson, and the annual White Privilege Conference in Louisville. HM 205
- 3:00- 6:00 PEACC: "Step in for Peace" by making a commitment to tell people you won't tolerate violence and you'll do your part to make this the safest campus around. SRC Wellbeing Station.

Thursday, Sept. 24

- 3:00- 6:00 PEACC: "Step in for Peace" by making a commitment to tell people you won't tolerate violence and you'll do your part to make this the safest campus around. SRC Wellbeing Station.
- 4:00- 5:15 "Peacemaking Processes Workshop" participants will work on methods to approach conflict in their everyday lives and communities, led by Eileen Blanton of Louisville's Peace Education Program, HUM 205

UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Peace, Justice
& Conflict Transformation

For information on the undergraduate certificate program in Peace, Justice & Conflict Transformation visit www.louisville.edu/peace