Reason for Policy:

The university realizes employees are often asked to work outside the university because of their professional expertise and/or capacity within the institution.

Statement:

Employees may perform work outside the university provided that such work does not conflict with their duties and responsibilities to the university or violate state regulations.

Related Information:

See conflict of interest policies and procedures for disclosure requirements of potential conflicts of interest prior to acceptance of work outside.

See Redbook Article 5.6 Work Outside the University specific to staff members.
