Information

Ethical Considerations

Effective

May 1, 1992

Number

PER-1.16

Applicability

This policy applies to University Administrators, Faculty, and Staff.

Administrative Authority

Vice President for Human Resources

Responsible Unit

Human Resources

Miller Information Technology Center Rm 02C

2315 South First Street Walk

Louisville, KY 40292

Phone: 502-852-6258
Email: askhr@louisville.edu

History

Revision Date(s): December 14, 2021 (minor edits); August 24, 2022 (minor edit); April 1, 2026 (minor revision)

Reviewed Date(s): March 8, 2016

Categories

Statement:

All employees of the University of Louisville who are members of occupations or professions having established standards of conduct shall, in addition to any obligations and responsibilities imposed by this document, be bound by all such applicable standards of conduct.

Employees of the University of Louisville have an obligation to reveal any financial conflicts of interest which might arise between performance of duties to the university and outside interests. (The Redbook, Section 2.5.8.)

Related Information:

PER-1.03, Conflict of Interest

The Redbook, Section 2.5.8