Reason for Procedure:

To improve the processes of how the University procures goods and services and to reduce cost and provide better reporting of assets and maintain the needed level of quality.

Statement:

The University of Louisville (University) requires departments and employees to obtain three quotes from vendors when procuring goods and/or non-professional* services that total between $50,000 and $99,999.99.

The following steps must be followed when procuring goods and services that total between $50,000 and $99,999.99:

1. Obtain three quotes from vendors. For government agency purchases refer to the resource guidance.
2. Attach the quote documentation to the purchase requisition form.

*Professional Services Contracts (PSC) have no spend threshold and all require either a competitive solicitation (RFP) or a sole source justification.
