

Re-Election Campaign Hiring Interns

Louisville Mayor Greg Fischer is running for a third and final term in 2018. Mayor Fischer is currently seeking interns to join the campaign team from now until the November 6th election. Campaign interns will be tasked with the following:

- ❖ Creating content, monitoring and posting from the campaign's social media accounts (Facebook, Twitter & Instagram)
- ❖ Assisting with event planning
- ❖ Developing and managing weekly volunteer newsletter
- ❖ Participating in phone banking, canvassing and other forms of voter outreach
- ❖ Working the campaign booth at festivals, picnics and other events
- ❖ Staffing the Mayor at campaign events
- ❖ Recruiting and training volunteers
- ❖ General office work and data entry as needed

A successful candidate:

- ❖ Will have a strong sense of urgency to achieve results
- ❖ Will be an excellent communicator
- ❖ Will be reliable, flexible and available for some weekend and evening events
- ❖ Will be able to work both independently and as part of a team
- ❖ Will be interested in learning about local politics and government

Logistics:

- ❖ Fischer Campaign HQ is located at 600 E Main Street, Suite 101 in NULU
- ❖ Parking is provided
- ❖ The intern position can be part-time or full-time depending on the candidate's schedule

For more information:

- ❖ Check out the campaign's social media accounts – Fischer for Lou on Facebook, Twitter and Instagram or visit our website at www.gregfischer.com

To apply:

- ❖ Email resume to Margaret Brosko (margaret@gregfischer.com)