SCHOLARSHIP OPPORTUNITY

The Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations is seeking applicants for the 2018-2019 Student Scholarship. The Scholarship covers a one-year membership in the Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations, along with all luncheon and dinner expenses. In addition, one Scholarship recipient will be eligible to compete for the ACFR Young Leaders Initiative, held in Washington D.C. in spring/summer 2019. If selected, that student's expenses for the YLI will be covered by the Louisville Committee. Students must be Political Science majors.

The Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations has one meeting per month September through May, hosting some of the top experts and policy-makers on various topics critical to American foreign policy. We require each scholarship recipient to attend a minimum of six meetings. Luncheon meetings are from 12:00 noon to 1:30 pm, generally at Vincenzo's restaurant; dinner meetings are from 6:00 pm to 8:30 pm.

Interested applicants can find information describing the history and purpose of the Louisville Committee on Foreign Relations on the website, <http://louisvillecommittee.org/>. Established in 1938, the Committee is a non-profit 501(c) 3 organization with the mission of advancing a non-partisan dialogue on U.S. foreign relations. The LCFR is affiliated with the American Committees on Foreign Relations in Washington, D.C., and has approximately 100 members from the business, legal and academic communities in Louisville.

To apply for the Scholarship, send a brief expression of interest in foreign affairs, and a resume, to Dr. Charles E. Ziegler, Executive Director: charles.ziegler@louisville.edu Deadline for applications is September 14, 2018.
