

THE COUNCIL OF STATE GOVERNMENTS GRADUATE FELLOW

The Council of State Governments (www.csg.org) is our nation's only membership organization serving all three branches of state government. CSG is a region-based forum that fosters the exchange of insights and ideas to help state officials shape public policy. Founded in 1933, CSG is the oldest national organization serving the policy and leadership needs of this unique constituency—all elected and appointed state officials across the three branches of government in all 50 states and the six U.S. Territories. The Council of State Governments' headquarters office is located in Lexington, Kentucky with regional and specialty offices located in Atlanta, Chicago, New York City, Sacramento and Washington, D.C.

Internship Opportunity

The Council of State Governments provides students unique internship opportunities to gain real-world experience in communicating public policy research and analysis in several state-based policy areas. These areas include, but are not limited to education, energy and environment, health, interstate cooperation, legislation and legislative trends, research and surveys, transportation and fiscal/economic affairs. Students should expect challenging work assignments throughout their internship experience. Those selected may also have the opportunity to publish original content under the CSG brand. Applicants should also be comfortable communicating directly with state leaders and their staff via email and phone.

Interns work with CSG's communication staff as well as its policy department staff.

Application and Selection Process

The Council of State Governments accepts applications for internship positions year round. Interested students may apply by submitting a résumé, cover letter explaining their career interests and goals, one writing sample and two references to the address listed below or via email to Dan Logsdon at dlogsdon@csg.org.
