

Government Affairs Internship

Cornerstone Government Affairs is looking for Intern Candidates to assist our State Government Affairs team at the Capitol during the 2023 Legislative Session. Interns will have the opportunity to gain hands-on experience in state lobbying efforts and gain knowledge of key stakeholders and issues of importance in the state of Kentucky.

Dates: January 16th through April 15th, 2023

Requirements: Third year level student or higher in a bachelor's degree program; or graduate studies

The ideal candidate should possess excellent written and verbal communication skills as well as strong organizational skills and high attention to detail. Candidates should have the ability to discern, identify and provide the appropriate level of information to stakeholders and hold a deep interest in politics and the legislative process. Exceptional candidates will have a proven track record of strong relationship building skills and be positive and proactive while maintaining a high level of professionalism.

Duties & Responsibilities:

- Attend committee hearings and take detailed notes on legislation that are relevant to the team;
- Assist with creation and distribution of electronic and print information;
- Prepare and update legislative meeting calendars for firm's lobbyists.

Cornerstone will reimburse for parking and expenses incurred directly related to performance of Cornerstone business matters. Academic credit can be arranged upon agreement and documentation by sponsoring institution. In addition, Interns are paid $16.10 per hour.

About The Firm

Founded in 2002, Cornerstone is a full-service, bipartisan consulting firm specializing in federal and state government relations, public affairs and strategic communications, and advisory services. Utilizing a shared vision, philosophy, and complete team approach, Cornerstone – with 14 offices and more than 100 professionals – stands as one of the industry's most effective and respected consulting firms. We are proud of our professional standards and team culture that provide clients the full depth and breadth of our expertise, experience and relationships, resulting in meaningful and highly valuable partnerships. At our core, we are a professional services consulting firm that focuses on solving problems and creating opportunities for our clients.

How to Apply

Interested candidates should send their resume, cover letter and writing samples to Ethan Witt, ewitt@cgagroup.com