Ford Hall Goes to Washington Application

Internships in Washington D.C. are incredible resume-building opportunities for students who want to work in politics, but low pay and the high cost of living in D.C. can make these internships unattainable for many students. Sponsored by the Political Science Alumni Council, FHGTW will fund up to $4,000 toward living expenses for students who plan to complete an internship in Washington D.C. Applicants must submit an updated resume, personal statement outlining their personal goals, internship program, how their grant will be used, and an estimated budget. Applicants must be Political Science undergraduate or graduate students at the University of Louisville, pursuing a degree, and have a minimum GPA of 3.0 at the time of application. Priority is given to those students who have not received this award previously. All information is required. The funding period is May 1, 2024, to August 26, 2024.

Priority Deadline: March 8, 2024

Applications will be accepted after this date until all funds have been awarded.
