"Buy Local" Shopping Tour

You are invited to join Jane Ramsey and other UofL friends on a fun excursion to some of Louisville's most unique, homegrown businesses.

- Start the day with festive drinks and light breakfast at the University Club
- Board a chartered bus to hop and shop the local stores and restaurants that "keep Louisville weird" with fun and games along the way. We'll hit the NULU, Frankfort Avenue and Westport Village shopping hubs, including lunch on your own at one of the many uniquely Louisville establishments
- Participate in the LIBA Holiday Passport Contest for a chance to win a $1,000 shopping spree
- Finish the day with a happy-hour at the University Club. Sample and learn to make custom holiday drinks, learn how to create holiday wreaths and decorations, and stay as we draw for valuable prizes

8 a.m. - 6 p.m., Dec. 9, 2011

Continental breakfast and boarding 8-9 a.m.

Shopping until 4 p.m.

Reception/happy hour 4-6 p.m.

Only $30.

Space is limited. RSVP by Dec. 6, 2011.

This trip is ideal for new employees and their families or for employees and friends who want to explore the shops and restaurants that make Louisville unique.

Sponsored by the University of Louisville in partnership with the University Club and the Louisville Independent Business Alliance (LIBA).
