With Mr. Fischer's help, the University will host the 100-piece exhibit, from September through mid November on Belknap Campus and at select downtown locations in Louisville. The University will augment the celebration with nationally prominent speakers. Mr. Fischer said the community was enthused.

Provost Willihnganz acknowledged Mr. Fischer as the driving force for bringing the Hart art exhibit to Louisville. Mr. Fischer provided pamphlets about the exhibit and encouraged board members to visit and support it. Noting many levels of sponsorship exist, Mr. Fischer encouraged anyone interested in making a donation to contact Vice President Inman.

Mr. Fischer stated one result of the exhibit was the renovation of Hite Art Gallery. Provost Willihnganz recognized this as an opportunity to engage the community in art and philosophy. She further noted a Hart on Wheels program will take exhibits to the local K-12 schools.
