

How does the new PSYC BS compare to the PSYC BA and the old PSYC BS?

	PSYC BA degree	NEW PSYC BS degree (beginning summer 2021)	OLD PSYC BS degree (prior to summer 2021)
 Psychology courses	7 required core courses: PSYC 201, PSYC 301, PSYC 302, PSYC 305, PSYC 306, PSYC 307, PSYC 308	7 required core courses: PSYC 201, PSYC 301, PSYC 302, PSYC 305, PSYC 306, PSYC 307, PSYC 308	7 required core courses: PSYC 201, PSYC 301, PSYC 302, PSYC 305, PSYC 306, PSYC 307, PSYC 308
	5 PSYC electives at 300+ level	6 PSYC electives at 300+ level	6 PSYC electives at 300+ level
	1 PSYC CUE course	1 PSYC CUE course	1 PSYC CUE course
 Supporting courses	4 courses from 2 different social science departments (2 courses from each)	4 courses in ANY social or natural science dept. at 300+ level	10 BIO, CHEM, MATH & PHYS courses with labs
 Credit hour limits	Students can take maximum of 40 credit hours of PSYC courses	Students can take maximum of 60 credit hours of PSYC courses	Students can take maximum of 60 credit hours of PSYC courses

For more information about the new PSYC BS degree, go to <https://catalog.louisville.edu/undergraduate/majors/psychology-bs/>