

Kyle B. Brothers, M.D., Ph.D.
University of Louisville

Kyle Brothers is an Associate Professor in the Department of Pediatrics at the University of Louisville, where he is also affiliated with the Institute for Bioethics, Health Policy, and Law. Dr. Brothers' research focuses on the ethics of genetic research and the translation of genomic technologies into clinical care. Dr. Brothers is a pediatrician and practices pediatric primary care at University of Louisville Pediatrics Downtown Clinic. He is also an experienced clinical ethicist and serves as the chair for the ethics committee of Norton Children's Hospital. Dr. Brothers received his Doctor of Medicine from the University Of Louisville School Of Medicine. He completed his residency training and chief residency in Pediatrics at Vanderbilt Children's Hospital and his PhD in Ethics and Society at Vanderbilt University.

Dr. Brothers serves as co-investigator of "Addressing ELSI Issues in Unregulated Health Research Using Mobile Devices," a three-year grant funded by the National Cancer Institute, the National Human Genome Research Institute, the Office of Science Policy, and the Office of the Director of the National Institutes of Health.

END OF DOCUMENT