

Welcome to the Department of Sociology

The Department of Sociology is located in Lutz Hall on the southeast side of campus on the first floor of the east wing.

The Department holds the offices of all sociology faculty, adjuncts, staff, and graduate teaching assistants.

Graduate classes are generally held in our large conference room and computer room.

And some of our department events are held in the department, including our end-of-semester celebrations, faculty and grad mixers, and thesis and dissertation defenses.
