J. Allen Lamb & Edward S. Pocock III Foundation/ Southern Police Institute Scholarship Application

Two scholarships per session will be awarded to residents in U.S. states west of the Mississippi River attending the Administrative Officers Course (Fall and Spring semester) meeting the criteria established below. Applications should be sent to the attention of:

Director
Southern Police Institute
Department of Justice Administration
College of Arts and Sciences
University of Louisville
Louisville, Kentucky 40292

The following criteria shall be established and strictly adhered to:

1. The scholarship will be applied towards the recipient’s tuition, housing (on campus) and application fee up to a maximum of $6500.
2. The applicant/recipient must be a full-time sworn law enforcement officer employed by a state, county, or municipal law enforcement agency in a U.S. state located west of the Mississippi River. Preference will be given to Tribal Police and/or underrepresented minority applicants holding command, supervisory, or administrative positions in agencies located west of the Mississippi River.
3. If no applicant meets the above criteria, the scholarship may be awarded to underrepresented minorities nationwide. (The Southern Police Institute and the J. Allen Lamb & Edward S. Pocock III Foundation reserve the right to make awards in a future session, with the scholarship funds disbursed at the time the awards are announced.)
4. The applicant/recipient must be a first-line supervisor or above within his/her organizational structure (an individual holding command, supervisory, or administrative positions in his/her agency) and meet University of Louisville admission standards for acceptance to the program.
5. The application must be from the applicant and endorsed under separate cover, on departmental letterhead, by the chief administrator of the applicant’s organization demonstrating fiscal need for the scholarship funds and/or the benefit of the training program for the agency and applicant.
6. The applicant must submit a current photograph in JPEG format and agree to have the photo and scholarship award announcement published by SPI.

I certify this and have read, and understood, and agree in total with these criteria and requirements.
