ADA Compliance Advisory Committee – Heather Gentry (term ends June 30, 2023)

Senators Appointed: 1

Term of Appointment: One year

Description: The UofL ADA Advisory Committee (ADAAC) is intended to serve as a resource to UofL's Title IX/ADA Coordinator and the university community by providing a channel for stakeholders throughout the UofL community, whose work or study is impacted in a broad range of ways in a broad range of contexts by ADA compliance-related issues, to communicate and discuss areas of interest and concern with the coordinator and other UofL experts and stakeholders. The ADAAC is intended to provide a forum for those individuals and their UofL constituents to share their perspectives and concerns on an ongoing basis, and to provide a forum for an ongoing campus-wide dialogue on concerns and possible solutions, specifically aimed at promoting ADA compliance and best practices throughout the university. Particular emphasis will be placed on difficult or evolving areas of the law where clear regulatory guidance may be recently introduced, developing, incomplete, or absent. The ADAAC shall have no independent policymaking authority but will as appropriate and as requested serve as a source of information and suggested changes in UofL's policy and/or approach to university leadership as to ADA-related issues and will provide a vehicle through which suggested changes to or comments on UofL's policies and/or practices may be introduced.
