

2023 TILL TEACHING INNOVATION AWARD SUMMARY FORM

All submission materials are due on Friday, March 17, through a web form on the TILL Innovative Teaching Award webpage, located here:

<https://louisville.edu/till/innovation-at-ul/teaching-innovation-award>.

Applicant Information

Last name: _____

First name: _____

Unit: _____

Department: _____

Years of UofL teaching: _____ Title: _____

In no more than two single-spaced pages or 1,000 words, please complete the following:

1. Provide a clear explanation of your teaching innovation(s). How did it or they meet a student need or address a challenge in learning? Include what makes the method(s) or strategy innovative.
2. What pedagogical theories, research, or best practices influence your teaching? In what ways have you integrated these ideas into your teaching?
3. Describe the potential of your teaching innovation(s) to be adopted within and across diverse academic disciplines.
4. Have you shared this teaching innovation with others? If so, how?

For questions regarding this award, contact Jen Anderson in the Teaching Innovation Learning Lab at jen.anderson@louisville.edu. Nominees are encouraged to consult the review committee's rubric to assure they are highlighting their innovation in each review category. Review the rubric here: <https://louisville.edu/till/innovation-at-ul/teaching-innovation-award>