U of L Women’s Center presents the University of Louisville

Dr. Ann T. Allen Scholarship

(One scholarship awarded per academic year)

The Ann T. Allen Scholarship is for current University of Louisville undergraduate students and the annual amount to be awarded is approximately $1,000 to students who meet the following criteria. ($500 per semester)

- Single, custodial parent who has sole custody of minor, dependent child (children) who has proven financial need

- Full-time (12 hours or more) undergraduate student in A&S (Arts & Sciences), *who shows progress toward a degree and remain in good standing.

- Applicant must submit a personal statement/goal and maintain a 2.2-2.5 GPA (Grade point average)

- The award is intended to assist with educational expenses including, but not limited to: tuition, housing and books.

Application materials must include:

1) Completed signed application by specified deadline date. (Incomplete applications will not be considered)

2) An unofficial transcript (including last semester and current enrollment)

3) A 500 word statement/essay explaining financial need, your goals in obtaining a degree and intended use of funds awarded.

4) A copy of your 2022-23 FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid) confirmation plus financial aid /scholarship awards from other sources

5) Signed Letters of recommendation from two professors at U of L to be submitted directly to the committee. Professors are asked to indicate the name of scholarship in their letters.

(*Scholarship may be renewable for those who show progress toward a degree and remain in good standing).

Fall 2022 deadline date: Friday, April 22, 2022

Submit or mail one original plus two copies of the application form, including supporting materials to: Attn: Phyllis M. Webb, Committee-Ann T. Allen Scholarship, c/o U of L Women’s Center, 196A Cultural & Equity Center, University of Louisville, Louisville, KY 40292 or email all information to Phyllis M. Webb, phyllis.webb@louisville.edu no later than the specified deadline date.