

6TH ANNUAL KENTUCKY WOMEN'S BOOK FESTIVAL
MAY 19, 2012
EKSTROM LIBRARY, UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Time	Presenter	Location
9:00 a.m.	Doors open
9:15 a.m.	Refreshments	Area outside Chao Auditorium [Ground Floor]
Opening 10 a.m.	Tori Murden McClure Introduction by Shirley Willihnganz, UofL Provost	Chao Auditorium
10:30 – 11:00	Book Signing	Outside Chao Auditorium
Morning Sessions
Concurrent sessions
Session 1 11-11:40	Glynis Ridley – “The Discovery of Jeanne Baret: A Biography of the First Woman to Circumnavigate the Globe” Introduction by Mary Popham	W104, 1 st Floor
	Deanna O’Daniel – “Marketing Your Work or Book” Introduction by Peggy Grimes	W103, 1 st Floor
Session 2 11:45-12:30	Kiki Petrosino – “ Fort Red Border and The Dark Is Here: A Reading ” Introduction by Samantha Hall	W103, 1 st Floor
	Sara Havens – “I Want to Write A Book: The Benefits and Challenges of Self-Publishing” Introduction by Virginia Mattingly	W104, 1 st Floor
Lunch & Keynote Speaker
12:45-1:45	Mary Ann Taylor-Hall “A Very Odd Way to Spend a Life” Introduction by Judi Jennings	Silent Study Room East Wing, 1 st Floor
1:30 – 2:00	Book signing	Outside Chao Auditorium
Afternoon Sessions
Concurrent sessions
Session 3 2-2:40	Julie Wade – “Shifting the Gaze: From the Retrospective Memoir to the Coming of Age Narrative” Introduction by Cate Fosl	Braden Institute 2 nd floor
	Sharon Receveur – “Bookmaking, a Thoughtful Process” Introduction by Delinda Buie	W104, First Floor
Session 4 2:45-3:30	Nancy Jensen – “Researching the Ordinary in Extraordinary Ways “ Introduction by Beverly Giammara	Chao Auditorium
Closing 3:35-4:20	Maureen Morehead Introduction by Annette Allen	Chao Auditorium
4:20 – 5:00	Book signing	Outside Chao Auditorium [Ekstrom Library closes at 5:00p.m.]